

Post 1/14/67
Briton Pleads for End To Dispute on Slaying

LONDON, Jan. 16 (Monday)
(AP) — An American-born British jurist pleaded today for an end to the controversy damaging the United States' image abroad.
over President Kennedy's assassination. He said it was Arthur L. Booghart, 75-year-old professor emeritus of Oxford University who was born in New York City, in the January issue of Britain's Law Quarterly, which he edits, said:

"It must be remembered that however many zeros are added together, the result will still be zero.

"There will, therefore, never be an absolute and final answer to the allegation made in these books. That does not mean, however, that any weight need be given to them unless there is some reasonable, or even possible, evidence that would justify a continuing doubt."